

South Seas Symposium

EASTER ISLAND IN PACIFIC CONTEXT

AN INTERNATIONAL SCIENTIFIC AND CULTURAL EXCHANGE CONCERNING
EASTER ISLAND AND THE PACIFIC
AUGUST 6-9, 1997 ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

The committee of the South Seas Symposium is pleased to extend an invitation to a conference on Easter Island and the Pacific to be sponsored by the Easter Island Foundation and hosted by the Maxwell Museum of Anthropology, University of New Mexico, Albuquerque Abstracts are invited for papers concerning Easter Island and the Pacific. Papers focusing on Polynesian Social Organization, Prehistoric Adaptation, the Archaeology of Stone Architecture, the Environment, or Language and Traditions are especially encouraged. Deadline for abstracts is December 1996.

Conference Coordinator: Christopher Stevenson, Ph.D.
Committee Members: Atholl Anderson, Ph.D., William Ayres, Ph.D.,
Steven Roger Fischer, Ph.D., George Gill, Ph.D.,
Georgia Lee, Ph.D. and Prof. Charles Love.

Coordinators: Garth Bawden, Ph.D., Maxwell Museum of Anthropology, and Barbara Hinton, President of the Easter Island Foundation.
Public relations: Kay Kenady Sanger, vice-president of the Easter Island Foundation.
Local arrangements and reservations: Mary Dell Lucas, Far Horizons.

Abstracts of 200 words may be submitted and inquires about papers addressed to Dr. Christopher Stevenson, 4620 Indianola Ave., Columbus, OH 43214;
phone (614) 268-2514, fax (614) 268-7881; email: obsidlab@aol.com

For Albuquerque information (arrangements, logistics, or registration) contact Far Horizons Archaeological and Cultural Trips, Inc., PO Box 91900, Albuquerque NM 87199-1900; phone (800) 552-4575; (505) 343-9400; fax (505) 343-8076;
email: journey@farhorizons.com or www.farhorizons.com

In addition to exchanging ideas and conversation with your colleagues, there will be many opportunities to experience Polynesian dances, crafts, and cultural events. Albuquerque is famous for its old Southwest hospitality, ancient ruins and living pueblos. Optional pre-and post-conference tours to surrounding sites will be available.

Look for more details in upcoming issues of RNJ.